D. O. No 2459/Fin one file 1st December 1913.

To

His Highness the Yuvaraja of Mysore, K.C.I.E

Your Highness,

I send herewith for your kind perusal the accompanying file of papers relating to the construction of the Cosmopolitan Club at Bangalore and the plan and estimate therefor, amounting to Rs.20,636 , received from the Honorary Secretary.

The Honorary Secretary has solicited sanction to the advance of a loan of Rs.10,000 and for the transfer of possession of the site, to enable him to start work.

If these proposals are sanctioned, and if the new Club we have in view also comes into existence separately, there will be a scattering of our resources. There will then be three clubs in Bangalore and all of them may remain weaklings. It is, I think, desirable either to develop the same club and improve its standard of refinement, or discourage its construction altogether. Perhaps Your Highness will consider this aspect of the question also and favour me with Your Highness' views in the matter. We may ~~discuss this~~ consider the question further ~~also~~ when we meet tomorrow

Your Highness' sincerely,

Dewan.
